

Northwestern
Crown Family Center for Jewish and Israel Studies

POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM IN ISRAEL STUDIES

Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, USA in partnership with Tel Aviv University, announces a Postdoctoral Fellowship in Israel Studies. This appointment will be for a two year residency at Northwestern University beginning September 1, 2017.

Responsibilities: Teaching five courses over six trimesters (2 years) in Israel Studies, including such areas as: the Israeli Political System; the History of Israel and the Arab-Israeli Conflict; the Economy of Israel; Sociology and Anthropology of Israeli society; Religion in Israel; Contemporary Israeli Culture, Literature, Poetry, Art, Theatre, Music and Cinema.

Eligibility: Applicants must have earned their Ph.D. no more than five years prior to the date of application. Proficiency in English and a demonstrable record of college-level teaching experience are required.

Application should include updated curriculum vitae, abstract of Ph.D. dissertation, statement of proposed research and teaching interests, two course outlines, and three letters of recommendation with at least one commenting on candidate's teaching capabilities, and materials related to previous teaching experience.

To view the complete announcement for this position please see:

www.dayan.org/northwestern-university-tau-postdoctoral-fellowship see also

www.jewish-israel-studies-center.northwestern.edu

Or contact: nutaupost@tauex.tau.ac.il or jewish-studies@northwestern.edu

Telephone: 03-6408092; 03-6409100

Application should be received by December 31, 2016

Please mail to: nutaupost@tauex.tau.ac.il

AA/EOE Northwestern University is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer of all protected classes including individuals with disabilities. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Hiring is contingent upon eligibility to work in the United States.