Global Engineering Trek to Israel: Water
Immersion for Freshmen and Sophomores — September 2019

Program Highlights:
• Explore cutting-edge applications of big data and advanced materials in water processes, including at the world’s largest desalination facility
• Experience Israel’s start-up culture, geopolitical intricacies, and ancient and modern water systems
• Spend two weeks engaging students and faculty at leading universities

Program Details:
• Need-based scholarships available
• This abroad experience carries no academic credit

Applications Due: March 31
Info Session: February 28, 12 PM in Tech Rm. L440 (food provided)
Apply and Learn More: www.isen.northwestern.edu/study-abroad

Northwestern